I am a social scientist specialising in inter-generational demography. My work has used mathematical modeling, micro-simulation techniques, and empirical analysis to explore changes in the experience of life events such as kin availability, family bereavement, and caring responsibilities across demographic regimes.

EDUCATION

The London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

PhD, Demography and Population Studies

2014 - 2018

- Summary: Effects of mass violence and genocide on population dynamics.
- Data collection: Genealogical surveys and in-depth interviews (1 year fieldwork)
- Mixed methods research design:
 - Quantitative analysis: Descriptive demographic, regression and survival models, network analysis
 - Qualitative analysis: Thematic and framework analysis
- Supervisors: Arjan Gjonça, Tiziana Leone, Ernestina Coast, and Michael Murphy

MSc, Social Research Methods (Distinction)

2013-2014

Practical approach with emphasis on quantitative and qualitative data analysis

Del Valle University, Guatemala

BA, Anthropology (First class)

2008-2012

Thesis on evaluation methodologies for Conditional Cash Transfer Programmes

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

- 2019 Otto Hahn Medal (2020) awarded by the Max Planck Society for ‘outstanding achievement from the initial creative period of young scientists’, in particular ‘for methodological innovations for studying the long-term consequences of mass killings on local populations’
- LSE PhD Academy Prize (2018) awarded by the London School of Economics for research on state-sponsored massacres in Guatemala
- LSE PhD Studentship (2014-2018) awarded by the London School of Economics

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research (MPIDR), Germany

Research Scientist (post-doc) and Research Area Chair (Aging and Generational Processes), Lab of Digital and Computational Demography

Since 2018

Leading role in projects using innovative data and approaches to understand demographic change in the context of global population aging.

United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), Denmark

Statistics Team Intern, Field Information and Coordination Support Section (FICSS)

2018

Central role in implementing UNHCR’s Demographic Projection Tool.

The London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

Research Assistant, Law Department 2017
Leading qualitative research on low student satisfaction

Research Assistant, Social Policy Department 2016-2017
Quantitative analysis of maternal and child health outcomes in Palestine

Research Assistant, Sociology Department 2014-2015
Qualitative coding and analysis of methodological practices in sociology of work

Research Assistant, Methodology Department 2013-2014
Survey of grey literature to identify common qualitative methods in International Development

Public Opinion Program, Universidad Rafael Landívar, Guatemala

Lead researcher 2013
Designing and implementing qualitative research for the Media Monitoring Project

The Population Council, Guatemala

Research Sub Coordinator 2012

- Design and implementation of qualitative research on conditional cash transfer programmes
- Led team of four ethnographers during six months of data collection in rural Guatemala

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

European Doctoral School of Demography (EDSD), Barcelona

Class Teacher for course “Digital Demography” 2020-2021

The London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

Class Teacher, Social Policy Department 2016-2017

- Leading seminars for the course “Introduction to Global Population Change”
- Weekly office hours, updated course website, homework and exam marking

Class Teacher, LSE Methods Summer School 2015

- Leading seminars for the “Qualitative Research Methods” strand
- Homework and exam marking

Del Valle University, Guatemala

Class teacher, Anthropology and Sociology Department 2013

- Leading seminars for the course “Advanced qualitative data analysis”
- Course design, wrote NVivo course pack (Spanish), homework and exam marking

Class teacher, Anthropology and Sociology Department 2011
Leading seminars for the course “History of Anthropology 1”
